++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Heavy rain, strong winds, and flooding possible in places.

This Evening and Tonight:
A wet evening and night across most of the region with bands of persistent rain, occasionally turning heavy, moving slowly eastward. Breezy at times but staying mild. Minimum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Friday:
Outbreaks of rain, locally persistent and heavy during the morning. Becoming drier during the afternoon but still a risk of heavy showers. Cooler with much lighter winds than of late. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Changeable for the weekend and to start next week with periods of rain, heavy at times, though some drier and sunnier spells. Windy with a chance of gales. Feeling cooler.
